DETAILED ACTION

1. The art rejection has been withdrawn in view of the applicant's arguments found in the Appeal Brief filed 9/06/2005. The instant claims appear to be directed to non-statutory subject matter and the Examiner is obliged to issue a 35 USC 101 rejection as found below. The Examiner regrets the delayed process of the application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

2. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1-11, 17-28 and 30-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

The claimed invention is directed to a computer-implemented method (claims 1-11 and 34-37), a computer-readable medium (claims 17-27 and 30-33) and a system (claims 28) for creating a portfolio. The claimed invention fails to produce a useful, concrete and tangible result. The claimed invention merely includes functions to be performed by a computer for creating a portfolio. The portfolio remains in the computer and therefore is not a concrete and tangible result. Furthermore, once the portfolio is created it is unclear as to the use or application of the portfolio.

Applicant is reminded that in See State Street Bank & Trust Co. v. Signature Financial Group, Inc., the courts have found that even if an invention incorporates abstract ideas, such as mathematical algorithms, the invention may nevertheless be statutory subject matter if the invention as a whole produces a "useful, concrete and tangible result." See State Street Bank & Trust Co. v. Signature Financial Group, Inc. 149 F.3d 1368, 1973, 47 USPQ2d (BNA) 1596 (Fed. Cir. 1998).

Claims 1-11, 17-28 and 30-37 are allowable over the art of record.
